

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days is an abuse of their privilege to use public airwaves. This privilege obliges them to use the airwaves in the public interest, not in the interest of a single candidate.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.